Trip Overview

Trip Overview

Stretched over 968 sq.km. of an area from Babai River Valley to Churia hills and Geruwa River, this is the largest National Park of Nepal. Bardia National Park once used to be the Royal Hunting Reserve which was later given the status of National Park in 1988. Explore one of the most undisturbed jungle in Nepal where several species of beasts walk unleashed in the dense Sal forest. Most of the landmass in Bardia National Park comprises of marshland, savanna and riverine forest. More than 230 species of local and migratory birds can be seen in the marshland where birds from as far as Siberia migrate to this place each year. More than 30 different species of mammals and several species of reptiles, snakes and amphibians can be found in the dense forest of Bardia National Park.

Get the unique experience of exploring wilderness in Nepal.

Walk close to one horned rhinoceros and observe the activities of swamp deer, black buck, langur monkeys, rhesus monkeys and other mammals from the safe distance.

You can choose from 4WD Jeep Safari, Canoeing, Nature Walk and Elephant back riding to explore the jungle of Bardia. We will also visit local Tharu village where villagers will organize cultural show in our honor.

We can either take a flight or drive to Bardia National Park. Highland Expeditions offer options in Chitwan Jungle Safari itinerary.
